

2012 Premier's Awards

FOR OUTSTANDING COLLEGE GRADUATES

Nomination Forms for Electronic Submission

NOMINATION PACKAGE - SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

IMPORTANT: Please read this form carefully

SUBMISSION GUIDELINES HAVE CHANGED

- The deadline for submissions is Thursday, May 17, 2012.
- The completed nomination form and photo must be submitted via e-mail and labelled by category and name.
- All nomination forms will be submitted in electronic format to the selection panel.
- You may nominate only one individual per category.

1. NOMINEE'S PROFILE: This is to be a maximum of 750 words using the template provided.

Complete a profile on each nominee using only the template provided. Please do not alter the template.

The completed nomination form is the document the selection committee will use in making its decision. Please do not include media releases, news clippings, CDs, books, etc., as these will not be used.

Submission guidelines:

- Your nominee's profile must clearly describe why this individual should win the award (i.e. what makes this individual extraordinary?).
- The content of the profile should strive to provide background facts, rather than praise.
- Do not include letters of reference.

2. PROFILE SUMMARY: This is to be a maximum of 100 words using the template provided. This summary should describe the nominee's career achievements and successes that make the nominee worthy of this award.

The information provided in this section may be used on the Premier's Awards website and in promotional materials.

3. NOMINEE RESUME/BIO: An unedited resume or bio provided by the nominee must be included with the completed nomination. This resume/bio will be used by Colleges Ontario for fact checking communications materials.

Note: The resume or bio will not be provided to the selection committee.
